

NJ Summer EBT is coming in Summer 2024

Summer EBT is a new-to-NJ child nutrition program intended to reduce hunger and food insecurity for children during the summer when school is not in session. This summer, NJ will be sending an EBT card to every eligible child to purchase food at participating retailers.

How does Summer EBT work?

Families will receive $120 per eligible child for the summer. Benefits can be used at authorized retailers, like grocery stores and farmers markets, to purchase healthy foods like fruits, vegetables, meats and other protein sources, whole grains, and dairy.

Is my child eligible for Summer EBT?

If your child is certified as eligible for federal free or federal reduced-price school meals and attends a school that participates in the National School Lunch Program or School Breakfast Program, they will be automatically enrolled in Summer EBT.

In NJ, your child is eligible to receive a Summer EBT card if your child's school participates in the National School Lunch Program AND:

- Your child receives free meals at school AND your household income is at or under 185% of the 2023-2024 federal poverty level; or
- Your household participates in SNAP or TANF; or
- Your child is experiencing homelessness, a migrant, or in foster care; or
- Your child attends a Head Start program administered by the school district.

If your child's school does not participate in the National School Lunch Program, they may still be eligible for Summer EBT if your household participates in SNAP or TANF or your child is in foster care.

How do I enroll my child in Summer EBT?

If your child receives free school meals:

If your child has already been certified as eligible to receive free school meals by your school district AND your household income is below 185% of the 2023-2024 federal poverty level, then your child is automatically eligible to receive the federal Summer EBT benefit, and no further action is required.

If your child does not receive free school meals:

If your child is not already directly certified or categorically eligible, and you did not complete and return an application for free school meals to your child’s school, then you are encouraged to submit a School Meals Application no later than April 19, 2024 to see if you qualify for the federal Summer EBT benefit prior to the start of summer. Applications will still be accepted throughout the summer. To apply for Summer EBT benefits, contact your child’s school.

Applications are available online via your child’s school district website, or paper applications may be obtained at your child’s school.

If your child attends a school that provides free meals for every student in the school:

If your child attends a Community Eligibility Provision (CEP) school, and is not directly certified or categorically eligible, and you did not complete and return a New Jersey Household Information Survey for SY 2023-2024 to your child's school at the beginning of the school year, then you are encouraged to submit a NJ Department of Education Household Information Survey no later than April 19th, 2024 for the federal Summer EBT benefit prior to the start of summer. NJ DOE Household Information Surveys are available online via your child's school district website, or paper applications may be obtained at your child's school.

Please follow up with your child's school if you are unsure about the status of your child's school meal eligibility.

How will I receive benefits?

A one-time summer benefit amount of $120 will be issued to each eligible child. Please check with your school that your address listed on your School Meals Application is updated no later than April 19, 2024.
